

ROUNDTABLE

STANDARD-SETTING ACHIEVEMENTS AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES

From its first resolution A/HRC/RES/1/1 adopting the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance to the recognition of the right to a clean, healthy and sustainable environment, this roundtable will assess the Human Rights Council's record in developing international standards, identify key lessons from its first two decades, and explore future avenues to strengthen its standard-setting role and enhance human rights protection globally.
